

Line & Prep Cook

The Grand Union is looking for a year round part time line & prep cook. This person is responsible for carrying out the creation of recipes designed by our Executive Chef, as well as other responsibilities under his direction. We use local products where ever possible. Experience with this type of food preparation is desired, but not necessary if you are open to learning new preparations methods. Must be a team player and have helpful attitude toward other staff members.